

Dear Supporter,

On the occasion of the 200th anniversary of Frederic Church's birth, The Olana Partnership is thrilled to announce that the 2026 Frederic Church Awards will be held on April 22, 2026 at the Metropolitan Museum of Art. This year's honorees are Victoria Johnson, a Pulitzer Prize and National Book Award finalist, who has written the first biography of Frederic Church being published this May, and Jeffrey Gibson, one of the country's foremost contemporary artists, who, like Church, has brought American art to a global audience and makes the Hudson Valley his home.

We will also honor a group of Olana Champions – Stephen Clearman, Margaret Davidson, Phoebe Gubelmann, Belinda Kaye, Susan Livingston, Richard McCarthy, and Susan Winokur. Together, these individuals have given 200 years of service and support to The Olana Partnership's work at Olana. We will also present a special tribute to the preservation leaders who saved Olana in the 1960s: David Huntington, Jackie Kennedy, and Audrey & Stephen Currier.

We invite you to join us in celebrating our esteemed honorees by becoming a Frederic Church Awards benefactor. To be listed on the printed invitation, please respond by March 9th.

Frederic Church was a founding trustee of Metropolitan and played a critical role throughout its first three decades. He was a principal advocate for making it a truly global museum, and, while he never pushed for the museum to acquire his own work, its prominence within contemporary collections ensured that he would be well-represented on its walls. Today his paintings anchor the central space of the American Wing's painting galleries.

In Church's bicentennial year it is most fitting that we will hold the 26th annual Frederic Church Awards at The Metropolitan Museum. We will welcome guests in the Great Hall and sit for dinner at the Temple of Dendur, a location richly emblematic of Church's global vision of the museum.

We hope that you will join us in honoring these extraordinary individuals and supporting Olana's future. Should you have any questions, please contact Sean Sawyer directly at ssawyer@olana.org or (518) 751-8009.

Sincerely,

ARTIST: JEFFREY GIBSON is an interdisciplinary artist, curator, and convener celebrated for his work in painting, installation, video, and performance. For over two decades, he has examined how language, pattern, and music construct meaning, synthesizing Indigenous and Western traditions through vibrant color, complex patterning, and layered sound. A member of the Mississippi Band of Choctaw Indians and of Cherokee descent, Gibson represented the U.S. at the 2024 Venice Biennale with his acclaimed exhibition the space in which to place me, which made its U.S. debut at The Broad in Los Angeles in May 2025. In June 2025 he unveiled a site-specific installation at Kunsthau Zurich. Gibson was selected for The Metropolitan Museum's 2025 Genesis Facade Commission and will present new work for the historic exterior this September. His work is held in major collections including MoMA, the Whitney, and the National Gallery of Art. He lives in New York's Hudson Valley and is artist-in-residence at Bard College.

AUTHOR: VICTORIA JOHNSON is the author of three books, including the Pulitzer Prize and National Book Award finalist American Eden: David Hosack, Botany, and Medicine in the Garden of the Early Republic.

She is a professor of urban policy and planning at Hunter College in New York City and holds a doctorate in sociology from Columbia University and an undergraduate degree in philosophy from Yale.

Johnson's latest book, Glorious Country: How the Artist Frederic Church Brought the World to America and America to the World, is the first-ever biography of Frederic Church (1826-1900), the virtuosic painter who put American art on the map of the world.
